I don't think there's any difference in meaning, although "free of charges" is much less common than "free of charge". Regarding your second question about context: given that ...

Similarly, "free education" is funded by the state (which is ultimately financed by taxpayers) and taught in state-run schools called state schools whereas schools that charge ...

1 "Free" absolutely means "free from any sorts constraints or controls. The context determines its different denotations, if any, as in "free press", "free speech", "free stuff" etc.

In the European Union (EU) countries, increasing attention is being paid to different energy storage solutions. In Latvia, Lithuania and ...

From residential battery walls to 100MW grid-scale installations, Latvian power storage manufacturers deliver solutions that balance innovation with practicality.

I want to make a official call and ask the other person whether he is free or not at that particular time. I think asking, "Are you free now?" doesn't sound formal. So, are there any ...
